DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,2,3,10,11,12, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Karaorman et al. (6,631,346).

In regard to claims 1,2,3,10,11,12, and 21, Karaorman et al. show in Figure 4, a system, program, and method for decoding a packed representation of multiple parses comprising the steps of: providing a packed representation including nodes of a parse tree (Figs. 6,7), having a substitution list (substitution transformation, col. 7, ln 10-20), creating a current forest object, replicating the current forest object (Parse Forest Generator – item 132), and traversing and updating each node of the packed representation (Fig. 4, inherently a depth first traversal).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 5,7,8,9, and 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Karaorman et al. (6,631,346).

In regard to claims 5,7,8,9 and 13-20, Karaorman et al. show in Figure 4, a system, program, and method discussed above. They do not specifically show a method or program for the step of performing a vector update of the current forest object, setting a current edgenode to a root edgenode of the packed representation, and setting the current forest object to an empty forest object. The Examiner takes Official Notice that it one of ordinary skill in the art would know how to manipulate parse trees and edgenodes. Therefore, it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to add these features because they provide a more user-friendly way of extracting data.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record, Kaorman et al. show a system and method for decoding multiple parses. In regard to claims 4 and 6, they do not specifically show that the current forest object is replicated by a number equal to the number of edgenodes in the substitution list of a current edgenode when the number of edgenodes in the substitution list is greater than one.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Susan McFadden whose telephone number is 703-308-6693. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 9:30-6:00.
